

Call for Nominations: IRCOM Board of Directors

Nominations open February 13, 2026, and end March 13, 2026, or until positions filled.

IRCOM is continually working to be representative of the community it serves, and the community it lives within. IRCOM is seeking individuals to serve on our Board of Directors and/ or Committees who strongly believe in our mission:

“IRCOM strives to empower newcomer families to integrate into the wider community through affordable transitional housing, programs, and services”

We are looking for new Board members who bring some of the following key characteristics:

- Lived experience as a refugee or immigrant
- Identifies as BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, Person of Colour)
- Knowledge of employment law
- Knowledge of social housing management or property management
- Experience fundraising / donor cultivation / individual giving programs
- Strong understanding of marketing and communications
- Knowledge of financial administration, ideally holding a professional accounting designation
- Understanding of community development and social change
- Experience working in the inner-city
- Experience working in Not For Profit

Please self-nominate by completing the attached nomination form. If you have a resume you would like to share, that would be greatly appreciated. Current IRCOM board members would be happy to answer questions about the commitment involved in being Directors, or their experience on the Board and committees. Nominations and / or questions can be submitted to the IRCOM Board President - Beyen Embafrash at bein2001@hotmail.com

We thank everyone who expresses an interest in joining IRCOM. The Governance Committee will be in touch with those selected to proceed to engagement.

Sincerely,

Beyen Embafrash

President, IRCOM Board of Directors

Shereen Denetto

Executive Director, IRCOM
